Amendment deleting various species (solvents and acids) taught by the art of record and reciting particular plasticizers found in specification after Final rejection raises new issues that would required further consideration and search and thus it will not be entered. Applicant argument based on said amendment has no probative value since it will not be entered. Amendment with respect to 112, 1st and 2nd PP rejections will not be entered either even if it overcame said rejections since a partial entry is not permitted. The examiner will address such issues in the future, if there is one.

In case of filing RCE, careful revision to amendment is suggested. For example, claim 3 has been amended, but the claim status identifier recites "(Canceled)". Also, claim 1 recites "admixture consisting of" which does not allow any additional component such as a diluent of claim 3. The similar problem is seen in claim 15 since claim 1 recites particular plasticizers with "consisting of" and thus the recited "substituents" is impermissible.

Again, cancelled claims do not need a recitation of claimed language and for example, "4 (Canceled)" is more than enough.

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Tae H. Yoon whose telephone number is (571) 272-1128. The examiner can normally be reached on Mon-Fri.
